

English Language Lab

Due to the scarcity of infrastructure there is no particular room allocated for the language lab. However English language teachers are using the junior and senior computer labs as language labs during their respective classes. Listening test for Assessment of Speaking and Listening test is conducted in the senior computer lab.